Come Journey with Us!

Welcome to Epiphany! We are glad you are here today.

If you are visiting, please make yourself at home.

We have a vibrant children and youth program with Sunday School each week at our 9:30 am service.

Note that our 9:30 am service is live-streamed, recorded, and posted to social media.

We are blessed to welcome The Rev. Janet Nield, former Chair of the Interchurch Refugee Group, as our homilist this morning.

The Collect of the Day

Let us pray. Spirit of the living God, we pray, on this Refugee Sunday, for the millions of refugees and displaced persons in need of care and compassion this day; stir our hearts to action and help us to pursue pathways to peace in all our relations.

Amen.

The Proclamation of the Word

A reading from the Book of Deuteronomy (34:1-12)

Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the Lord showed him the whole land: Gilead as far as Dan, all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, the Negeb, and the Plain that is, the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees as far as Zoar. The Lord said to him, "This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your descendants'; I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there."

Then Moses, the servant of the Lord, died there in the land of Moab, at the Lord's command. He was buried in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Bethpeor, but no one knows his burial place to this day. Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died; his sight was unimpaired and his vigour had not abated. The Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; then the period of mourning for Moses was ended.

Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, because Moses had laid his hands on him; and the Israelites obeyed him, doing as the Lord had commanded Moses. Never since has there arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face. He was unequalled for all the signs and wonders that the Lord sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants and his entire land, and for all the mighty deeds and all the terrifying displays of power that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

Holy Word, Holy Wisdom. Thanks be to God.

You turn us back to dust and say, "Go back, O child of earth." For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past and like a watch in the night. R

You sweep us away like a dream; we fade away suddenly like the grass. In the morning it is green and flourishes; in the evening it is dried up and withered. R

Return, O God. How long will you tarry? Be gracious to your servants. Satisfy us by your loving-kindness in the morning; so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life. Make us glad by the measure of the days that you afflicted us and the years in which we suffered adversity. R

Show your servants your works and your splendour to their children. May the graciousness of our God be upon us; prosper the work of our hands; prosper our handiwork. R

A reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians (2:1-8)

You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain, but though we had already suffered and been shamefully mistreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition.

For our appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery, but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts.

As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed; nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others, though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children. So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us.

Holy Word, Holy Wisdom. Thanks be to God.

♪ Gospel Acclamation: Halle, Halle, Hallelujah ♪

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew (22:34-46). Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.' On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: "What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "The son of David." He said to them, "How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet"'? If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?" No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

The Gospel of Christ. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily The Rev. Janet Nield, Interchurch Refugee Group

The Immigrant Apostles' Creed

Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say: I believe in Almighty God, who guided the people in exile and in exodus, the God of Joseph in Egypt and Daniel in Babylon, the God of foreigners and immigrants.

I believe in Jesus Christ, a displaced Galilean, who was born away from his people and his home, who fled his country with his parents when his life was in danger. When he returned to his own country he suffered under the oppression of Pontius Pilate, the servant of a foreign power. Jesus was persecuted, beaten, tortured, and unjustly condemned to death. But on the third day Jesus rose from the dead, not as a scorned foreigner but to offer us citizenship in God's kingdom.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the eternal immigrant from God's kingdom among us, who speaks all languages, lives in all countries, and reunites all races.

I believe that the Church is the secure home for foreigners and for all believers. I believe that the communion of saints begins when we embrace all God's people in all their diversity. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Reminded of God's gracious and abundant love, we offer our prayers, confident that God hears us. A brief silence.

Loving God, we lift up to you people who have fled and are fleeing their homes to escape oppression, poverty, persecution, violence, and war. We pray especially for children travelling alone in dangerous situations. Good Shepherd, no refugee is a stranger to you, or far from your love. Shelter their souls and bodies.

Loving God, strengthen us to witness your love for all people. In Jesus' name we pray.

We pray for all who are fleeing drought and famine, floods and fires, earthquakes and hurricanes. Give us the wisdom to understand that these events are the consequences of the misuse of the world's resources. Give us the discipline to reduce our demands and the grace to welcome those who are suffering from our choices. Loving God, strengthen us to witness your love for all people. In Jesus' name we pray.

Help us to remember all who tonight will go to sleep unfed and unwelcome; strangers in foreign lands, people who have fled for their lives and are far from their homes. We lift up to you those awaiting their refugee board hearing or are appealing an unfavourable decision. Be with them in this time of uncertainty. Loving God, strengthen us to witness your love for all people. In Jesus' name we pray.

We pray for all in authority throughout the world who make decisions that impact refugees. Grant them wisdom, compassion and courage to tackle the root causes of the refugee crisis. Grant us the courage to advocate for refugees in our community. Loving God, strengthen us to witness your love for all people. In Jesus' name we pray.

Gracious God, you call us to welcome all people and to love our neighbours as ourselves. Help us to remember that we all belong to the same human family. Help us to honour the sacrifice of migrants and refugees with actions more than words. Give us voices that refuse to remain silent, and hands to reach out in welcome. Loving God, strengthen us to witness your love for all people. In Jesus' name we pray.

Help us to be aware of the fears, anxiety, pain, sorrow, and uncertainty all refugees suffer and to know that many refugees carry wounds, both mental and physical, and have suffered greatly. Banish our own fears and give us compassionate hearts for those who had courage to flee their homes but live in hope. Most gracious and loving God, look with mercy on those who today are fleeing from danger, are homeless and are hungry. Comfort all those who mourn the loss of those who died in Wainwright, Alberta last week, and bring healing to all those who were injured. Bless those who work to bring them relief, inspire generosity and compassion in all our hearts, and guide the nations of the world towards that day when all will rejoice in your reign of justice and peace. We ask this in Jesus' name, who was also a refugee and migrant and who had no place to call home. Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

When your people were taken into exile you wept with them by the river of Babylon and carried them home. Restore us, O God, let your face shine!

At the right time you sent your Anointed One to stand with the poor, the outcast, and the oppressed. Jesus touched lepers, and the sick, and healed them. He accepted water from a woman of Samaria and offered her the water of new life. Christ knew the desolation of the cross and opened the way for all humanity into the redemption of your reconciling love. On the night he was betrayed, Jesus, at supper with his friends, took bread, gave you thanks, broke the bread, gave it to them, and said, "Take and eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

How to Get Involved The Interchurch Refugee Group (IRG), a registered charity, has been welcoming refugee families to Canada since 1989. The IRG sponsors government-approved refugee families from around the globe, providing financial support for their first year, assisting their integration into Canadian society, and facilitating their transition towards self-sufficiency.

Five East-end Ottawa churches comprise the ecumenical coalition of the IRG: Community Pentecostal Church, Epiphany Anglican Church, Navan-Vars United Church, Orleans United Church, and Rothwell United Church.

The IRG welcomes the involvement of volunteers from our churches, as well as the wider community. To make a donation in support of this life-changing ministry, please send a cheque to: The Interchurch Refugee Group, c/o the Treasurer, 1460 Laurin Crescent, Orleans, ON, K1E 3G7.
